

Tips to Informal Caregivers
on Giving Personal Care

Feeding Others

Procedure:

- If possible, have the person sit as erect as possible, or positioned for comfort.
- Take time to make eating a highlight of the day.
- Do not rush the feeding.
- Be patient and understanding.
- Be gentle with forks and spoons.
- Wipe off the corners of the mouth as needed.
- Do not mix all the food together.
- Use straws and training cups as needed.
- Keep conversation pleasant.
- When offering a glass or cup, touch it to the lips.
- Offer the person an opportunity to rinse his mouth after eating.
- If the person is blind, explain where food is on the plate, using the hands on a clock as an indicator. For example, mashed potatoes at the five o'clock position.
- In case of one-sided facial weakness or paralysis, feed to the good side.
